The International Neuroethics Society invites you to be a part of its 2013 Annual Meeting in San Diego, California.
An official satellite of the 2013 Society for Neuroscience annual meeting

Thursday, November 7, 5:00 - 7:45 pm Fleet Science Center
Friday, November 8, 8 am - 7:30 pm San Diego Marriott Marquis and Marina

Hear about “Neurogaming” at the Fleet Science Center on Thursday evening and continue with engaging discussions on Friday:
★ The Science and Ethics of Moral Enhancement
★ States of Consciousness: Neuroethics in Impairments of Consciousness, Brain Machine Interfacing and End of Life Decisions
★ Can Neuroscience Inform Us about Criminalilty & the Capacity for Rehabilitation?

Visit http://www.neuroethicsociety.org/ for details
Earlybird registration discounts

Be a part of the action – submit an abstract! Deadline is May 31

Enjoy breakfast and lunch, included with your registration, during social and networking opportunities with leaders in the field.

Confirmed Speakers Include:
Patricia Churchland, University of California – San Diego
Jens Clausen, University of Tubingen
Lisa Clayton, Bristol Law School, University of West England
Molly Crockett, University of Zurich
Mauricio Delgado, Rutgers University
Joe Fins, Weill Cornell Medical College
J. David Jentsch, University of California – Los Angeles
Holly Moore, Columbia University, New York State Psychiatric Institute
John Pickard, University of Cambridge
Barbara Sahakian, University of Cambridge
Julian Savulescu, University of Oxford
Niko Schiff, Weill Cornell Medical College
Catherine Sebastian, Royal Holloway, University of London
Judge Robert Trentacosta, Presiding Judge of San Diego

The International Neuroethics Society is an interdisciplinary group of scholars, scientists, clinicians and other professionals who share an interest in the social, legal, ethical and policy implications of advances in neuroscience. Our mission is to promote the development and responsible application of neuroscience through interdisciplinary and international research, education, outreach and public engagement for the benefit of people of all nations, ethnicities, and cultures.